

Karen Osborne, Travel & Entertainment Analyst – Supervisor | University of California – Davis

Karen Osborne is a business analyst at the University of California, Davis, Accounts Payable, Travel & Entertainment Department. Karen is the lead SME for the Travel Expense Module (TEM) in Quali currently under development with rSmart, working in conjunction with 7 partner schools. Karen is responsible for managing the travel department and has 23 years of experience at UCD in accounting and system implementation roles.